If a motion is not submitted by the president, any of The Company's Directors may submit it before the end or the adjournment of the meeting. 5.10 VOTE

Every Director has the right to vote and the motions submitted to the Board have to be decided by simple majority of the voting Directors in attendance (50 % + 1). Vote is casted by show of hands unless the President of the meeting or another Director in attendance ask for a secret ballot. In this case, the Secretary of the meeting acts as scrutineer and counts the ballots. If Directors take part in the meeting via technological means, they cast their votes to the Secretary verbally. Directors may, with the consent of all of The Company's Directors, take part in a Board meeting with any communication facility allowing them to participate in real time with the other attendees of the meeting. This can expressly apply to a specific meeting or in general for all subsequent meetings. The remote Directors are considered in attendance and the meeting is alleged to have been held in Canada. 5.15 ADJOURNMENT

The President of a Board meeting may, with the consent of the majority of the Directors in attendance, adjourn the meeting to another date and another location without it being necessary to give the Directors another convening notice. When the meeting is reconvened, the Board of Directors may validly deliberate on any unresolved motion from the previous meeting as long as quorum is met. The Directors constituting a quorum at the meeting so reconvened need not be the same persons who were present at the original meeting. If quorum is not met at the reconvened meeting, the meeting is considered having ended at the original one, upon its adjournment.
